

I don't want any unwanted calls from banks or any other business relationship I already have. If I wanted them to call me I would give them my permission. Please do not weaken or water down the existing do not call law. Thank you

Susannah Stapp